

LOOKING FOR WORK?

NH WORKS FOR RECOVERY

How does the NH Works for Recovery program benefit jobseekers?

The NH Works for Recovery program provides comprehensive and individualized re-employment services to individuals who have been directly or indirectly affected by the opioid crisis. Eligible participants will have an opportunity to receive job training and support services to help them successfully compete for many of the in-demand occupations located throughout New Hampshire.

The NH Works for Recovery services are offered at each of the twelve NH Works Offices located across the state. Career Navigators located in these offices will work with you to determine eligibility for the program and provide barrier assessments and case management services. Please call for an appointment at the NH Works office nearest to you.

What services are provided?
