

United States Probation

Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release

You shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.

You shall report to the probation officer and submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.

You shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer, and follow the instructions of the probation officer.

You shall support your dependents and meet other family responsibilities, to include complying with any court order or order of administrative process requiring the payment of child support.

You shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.

You shall notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change of residence or employment.

You shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, or distribute any controlled substance or paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.

You shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.

You shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.

You shall permit a probation officer to visit at any time at your home, employment or elsewhere and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.

You shall notify the probation officer within seventy-two hours of being arrested, questioned, or upon having any contact with a law enforcement officer.

You shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informant or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.

As directed by the probation officer, you shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, and permit the probation officer to make such notifications and confirm your compliance with such notification requirement.
